CHRONOLOGICAL INDEX—1997

Naval Engineers JOURNAL

VOLUME 109

✦ January — Vol. 109, No. 1

	Page
Balancing Affordability and Systems Engineering Darren Long	19
Acoustic Wave Sensor for Real-Time Monitoring of Volatile Organic Compounds Donald J. Modell, P.E.	27
Application of High Temperature Superconducting Wire to Magnetostrictive Transducers for Underwater Sonar Chad H. Joshi, Ph.D., Jan F. Lindberg and Arthur E. Clark	31
Empirical Testing: The Prototyper's Evaluation Mechanism Arnold N. Hafner, Ph.D	41
Maintenance Avoidance and Maintenance Reduction Kenneth S. Jacobs and Jon P. McComas	47
Subsonic and Supersonic Antiship Missiles: An Effectiveness and Utility Comparison James F. McEachron	57

✦ March — Vol. 109, No. 2

A Multidisciplinary Environmental Science and Engineering Master's Program: A Proposed NPS/DoD Partnership Conrad F. Newberry, Ph.D., P.E.	29
Cooperative Engagement Capability Michael J. O'Driscoll and Jerry A. Krill, Ph.D.	43
ISO 9000 Quality Organization William A. Stimson, Ph.D.	59
Zero Leakage Tornado Effect Pumps in Carrier Sewage Systems Wayne Johnson, Stephen Myers, Robert Schepis, Joseph Crew and Ronald Keltner	73
Dynamic Analysis: Sail the Ship Before It's Built Richard J. Dupuis and Jeff J. Neilson	83

✦ May — Vol. 109, No. 3

Advanced Double Hull Structural Design Technology Jerry Sikora, Jon M. Grassman, Pradeep Sensharma, Ph.D. and Joan Watts	117
Reliability Analysis of Transverse Stability of Surface Ships Khaled I. Atua and Bilal M. Ayyub, Ph.D., P.E.	129
Shipboard Controls of the Future LCdr. John V. Amy, Jr., USN, LCdr. Norbert H. Doerry, USN, Ph.D., LCdr. Timothy J. McCoy, USN, Ph.D. and E.L. Zivi, Ph.D.	143
U.S. High Speed Destroyers, 1919-1942: Hull Proportions A. Steven Toby	155
Naval Ship Self-Assessment of Hull Powering Performance Using Propulsion Shaft Torsionmeters and GPS LCdr. J. Bruce Ricketts, USNR and Lowry L. Hundley	181
An Approach to Assessing Readiness Based Logistic Support Policies Jack Dunst and Kevin Fry	195
Operational Systems, Logistics Engineering and Technology Insertion Michael J. Grubb and Alfred Skolnick, Ph.D.	205
Commercial Lighting Innovations Elizabeth Gauthier and Gordon M. Green	225
The Case for Automated Ammunition Magazines and New Guns Modularized with Automated Magazines Daniel L. Voss	233
Passive Navigation Using Inertial Navigation Sensors and Maps James A. Lowrey III and Jerome C. Shellenbarger, Ph.D.	245
Application of 3-D Nonlinear Wave-Load and Structural-Response Simulations in Naval Ship Design Allen H. Engle, Woei-Min Lin, Nils Salvesen, Ph.D. and Yung-Sup Shin, Ph.D.	253
AV-8B Flight Hazard Awareness Analysis and Training Using Flight Simulation Jeffrey E. Calvert, P.E.	269
Developing a Prototype Design Tool for Composite Topside Structures Steven Dirlik, Stephen Hambric, D.Sc., Shapour Azarm, Ph.D., Mary Beth Marquardt, A. Hellman, Scott Bartlett and Vincent J. Castelli, Ph.D.	279
The Joint Tactical Combat Training System – System Model Peter J. McCarthy and Mark J. Munkacsy	293
Future Naval Aircraft and Aircraft Carrier Design: A Study of Aircraft/Ship Interface Craig L. Nickol	299
Concentric Canister Launcher Jon J. Yagla, Ph.D.	313
Hull-Generated Intermodulation Interference: An Insidious Electromagnetic Compatibility Foe Lawrence T. Nosek	331
Meeting the 21st Century with SMART Mission Flexibility Ronald K. Alexander, P.E. and Larry Olmstead	341
Environmental Compliance: Requirements and Technology Opportunities for Future Ships Anthony D. Nickens, Joseph F. Pizzino and Christopher H. Crane	349

Architecting a Missile System for Navy Theater Ballistic Missile Defense
Anant Patel, Kathrin Kjos, Felix Sasso and Scott D. Robinson 373

Joint Logistics Over the Shore Operations in Rough Seas
Theodore G. Vaughters and Martin F. Mardiros 385

✦ July Vol. 109, No. 4

Design Decision Support System for the Engineering/Re-engineering of Complex Naval Systems
James H. Graham, Rammohan K. Ragade, Ph.D. and John G. Shea, Jr. 23

Eigenanalysis Applied to the Computer Network of a Combat Suite
Richard A. Holden and Robert W. Thomas, Ph.D. 35

Gel-Filled Boots for Corrosion Protection of Shipboard Waveguide Joints
Timothy J. Tenopir and Larry Schwartz, Ph.D. 47

Typhon: A Weapon System Ahead of its Time
Milton Gussow 53

✦ September Vol. 109, No. 5

3D Visualization Applied to Electromagnetic Engineering
Cdr. Steven Z. Elbinger, USNR and Ramses Routier 31

Building Ships as a System: An Approach to Total Ship Integration
Bernard G. Duren and James R. Pollard, Ph.D. 47

Hydroelastic Considerations in Ship Panel Design
Michael E. McCormick, Ph.D., Sc.D., Rameswar Bhattacharyya, Dr.Ing. and Sarah E. Mouring, Ph.D. 61

Influence of Human Engineering on Manning Levels and Human Performance on Ships
David E. Anderson, Fred R. Oberman, Thomas B. Malone, Ph.D. and Clifford C. Baker 67

ISO Certification and the Department of Defense
Howard Scott, P.E. and Randy G. Kuehn 77

Propulsion System Simulations: Making the Right Choice for the Application
Jeff J. Neilson and Robin M. Tarbet 83

Do Management Information Systems Replace Middle Managers?
Capt. Charles H. Wilson, USN 99

✦ November Vol. 109, No. 6

Ship Habitability (Preparing for the 21st Century
Edward P. Meere and Louis R. Grieco XX

Autonomous ESM Systems
John C. Sciortino, Jr. Ph.D. XX

Alteration Installation Teams: Breaking the Paradigm
LCdr. D. M. Krestos, USN XX

Modeling and Simulation for Integrated Ship Topside Design
N. T. Baron and J. W. Newcomb XX

An Arsenal Ship Design. Affordable, Advanced Warfighting Capabilities
Lt. Gregg W. Baumann, USN, Charles N. Calvano, LCdr. Michael Chase, USN, Lt. Gary L. Null, USN XX
